Good afternoon everyone and welcome once again to the Gerrard Buxton Sports Ground for a Federated Homes League Division 1 fixture, and our visitors today are Cheltenham Saracens, and to their players, management and supporters, we extend a warm welcome.

What a disappointing opening home league fixture we had last Saturday against Wallingford Town.

Bassett resplendent in their new strip, started the game well against Wallingford, who, having been relegated from the Premier Division at the end of last season, seemed content to adopt a physical approach to the game. Following an early defensive mistake which allowed Wallingford to take the lead, Bassett settled and were able to level the score through Roger Frost - but that was about it for Bassett. From that point on, Bassett seemed to lose direction and Wallingford took the game with two very well taken goals to win the match 3-1. A very disappointing display by Bassett, and the only players who came through the game with any credit were Gerry McKay and Neil Timbrell, Neil incidently, having re-joined Bassett this year after a spell with Penhill.

Needless to say, Mick Woolford will be thinking long and hard before deciding on his team for today. There are a number of players at the Club who I am sure could perform well at this level and would welcome the opportunity to prove themselves so don't be surprised if you see some changes today.

Well that's enough about last week, lets hope Mick Woolford can field a team today that will be eager to win and that will show 100% commitment throughout the full duration of the game, then and only then, if you loose, well, you have at least given it your best shot, but it must be total team effort.

I have nothing to report on the Reserves this week, their fixture last week away to Malmesbury had to be postponed, and will be re-arranged for later in the season. But this week, Mal Baker takes the Reserves to Marlborough for a Wilts Div 2 game. We wish them luck and hope that they can get their first win of the season.
